TWO CAR CRASH RESULTS IN FIVE PERSONS INURED

One Driver Is Arrested And Placed Under Bond And Charged With Recklessly Driving

A two car crash, which occurred Sunday evening of this week at 11:25 o'clock at the extension of the Sky-line boulevard intersection of the Junipero Serra boulevard, resulted in injuries to five people.

Ernest R. Brickdale of Sharp Park, who was on his way to work, was one of the drivers and was seriously injured. The other driver, Vincent Arthur Thompson, 2502A Clay street, who sustained a broken right arm, was placed under arrest on a charge of reckless driving and bail was set at $100.

The passengers in the Thompson car who were injured were Miss Rose Warren, 26, 41 De Wolf street and her father, Sidney Warren, 64, 3044 Alemany boulevard. The Warrens were treated at the Alemany Emergency Hospital; and Joe Leet of 55 Lee avenue was treated at the Villa Hospital.

Brickdale is in the Junipero Hospital. The driver arrested was given hospitalization at the Villa Hospital, where he still remains at present.

Both cars were badly damaged and were taken to a local garage for repairs.

FREE BUSES TO BRING VISITORS HERE FROM FAIR

County Expects To Maintain Representative At Exposition Next Year To Route People Here

Free personal tours of San Mateo County for visitors at the 1939 San Francisco Exposition will be provided if present plans of the Board of Supervisors materialize, Supervisor Fred E. Beer told Peninsula gardeners Tuesday evening.

Speaking at the annual banquet of Peninsula Gardeners Association at San Mateo, Beer revealed tentative plans to keep the 2-cent tax levy for the fair on the county assessment rolls next year.

This levy would provide a sum of about $20,000, which, with the addition of expected contributions, would form a fund whereby the county representatives at the fair could send down sight-seeing buses to tour this county, showing the fine homesites and other attractions.

WHIST PARTY BY LOCAL PTA GREAT SUCCESS

The P. T. A. whist held Tuesday was fun for all attending. A few of the regular attendants were missing and were missed. Hope to see those, and a few new faces.

Mrs. Joseph Devlin won first prize; Mrs. Eleanor Morley, second prize; Mr. Edgar Morley, third prize; Mrs. Cantor, fourth prize; Mrs. Nita Loomis, fifth prize; Mrs. Devlin, consolation prize.

Mrs. Morley won the apple pie for second prize, and she gave it back to the P. T. A. They sold it and Mr. Morley is trying to figure it all out—Morleys donated the pie in the first place—then she won it—gave it back—then had to buy two pieces. Oh well! You'll admit, it's a good cause.

Mrs. Ann Coffin and Mrs. Bernice Coffin will have charge of refreshment for next whist—February 8.

REFRAIN FROM TEMPTING TO DOUBLE PARK

Are you ever tempted to park double on a business street? Usually it is done as a momentary convenience in order to save a few steps or a few seconds. Do you realize that many preventable accidents are caused by this selfish and illegal practice?

Double parking is dangerous. It blocks traffic and inconveniences other drivers. It obstructs the view of motorists and it irritates the other fellow, thus making him a less dependable driver.

Double parking forces other cars into the opposite line of traffic which (it does not actually cause an accident, is confusing to everyone. Think of this the next time you are tempted to save a step by stealing safety.—San Mateo County Traffic Safety Commission.

WE'LL ALL BE AT BIG DANCE FOR OUR BEST TIME

All Citizens Should Bend Every Effort To Journey To Tanforan Club House Tomorrow Night For The County Wide Celebration

Several thousand humanitarian citizens from Daly City and other parts of San Mateo County will gather at Tanforan club house tomorrow (Saturday) night for the annual President's Birthday Ball to raise funds for the war on infantile paralysis.

With one of the bay region's most popular dance bands—Ernie Hecker and his Stanford orchestra—furnishing the music, and prominent night club stars featured in a gala floor show, this year's county-wide celebration will be the greatest ever held on the Peninsula, according to General Chairman Joseph V. Gaffey.

A portion of the proceeds will be retained in San Mateo County for treatment and prevention of infantile paralysis and the balance will be turned over to a new national fund for fighting the maiming disease.

Joe Cuneo, popular entertainer, will be master of ceremonies and Bradford Melvin, prominent San Mateo and San Francisco attorney, will give a brief address.

With dancing starting at 9 p.m. and continuing until 1 a.m., the spectacular floor show is planned for shortly after 10 o'clock. Prominent night club artists, who have donated their services for the ball, will include Dorothy and Leona Clifton, specialty dancers, Mel Peterson, vocal soloist, and Genevieve Wanda, in "Songs and Dances of the Isles," from the Royal Hawaiian; Senorita Anita Aguero, "Span-

Pauline Frederick Back To Legitimate

The return of Pauline Frederick to the legitimate stage is an event of importance for she has always been a great favorite and can be depended upon to give the fullest of pleasure in any portrait which she draws.

The announcement that Miss Frederick will come to the Curran Theater, San Francisco, opening on Monday, January 31, in the London, England, success "Suspect" has aroused great enthusiasm.

Arthur J. Beckhard, who has established himself in the past five years as one of the most astute producers and directors, is presenting Miss Frederick in "Suspect." The play is a murder plot, but not a mystery. Rather it is a psychological study of people involved in a murder case. For this reason, it is not proper to reveal the story of the play, but it can be relied on that it will have one of the most unusual and effective twists that any play has had in years.

For the support of Miss Frederick, Mr. Beckhard has assembled a splendid cast, including Grayce Hampton, Morton Lowalter, Virginia Barnato, Raymond Lawrence, Russell Hicks and William Griffith.

CHINESE CREW OF JAPAN BOUND SHIP STRIKE

A Chinese crew of the British freighter Federal went on a sit-down strike at a San Francisco dock recently upon learning that the ship's cargo was a consignment of steel rails bound for Osaka, Japan. The Chinese first officer, only crew member who spoke English, said, "We would be shot in Japan if we sailed there. If we escaped and reached China we would be shot as traitors." The steel will be scrapped in Japan, possibly to be made into munitions. The crew of 29 was finally sent to Angel Island, waiting transfer to another ship, bound for China direct.

Sheriff McGrath On Road To Recovery

"Sheriff McGrath is getting along fine. He spent a very comfortable night and is feeling himself today."

This was the report from the Stanford University Hospital in San Francisco, where the popular San Mateo County peace officer has been since Friday after suffering severe neuritis pains in his left arm and shoulder. Sheriff McGrath is undergoing a complete physical checkup while hospitalized.

It was stated he is suffering with a slight heart attack.

In the famed spectacle play, "The Miracle," she co-starred with Lady Diana Manners in role of the nun.

APPLICATIONS ORCHESTRA WILL FOR ELECTION OFFICERS NOW BEING SOUGHT

Pursuant to resolution adopted by the Board of Supervisors, the responsibility of compiling lists of precinct polling places and election officers is now the duty of the county clerk.

Although it is several months before the county primary election, August 31, yet, since there will be so much detail work to handle during the last forty days preceding the election, W. H. Augustus, county clerk, announces that he will now receive and file applications from persons who wish to serve as election officers.

Formal applications are unnecessary, although blanks are available at the clerk's office. Augustus states, however, that a letter addressed to his office is sufficient, providing the applicant's residence address is the same shown in his affidavit of registration.

ENROLLMENT FOR JAYSEE CLOSED

With enrollment for the spring semester taken care of this week, the San Mateo Junior College starts class work next Monday morning. Freshman students will be introduced into college activities next Wednesday, when they will be welcomed at the first assembly of the term and at the Freshman reception dance, Friday evening, in the college gymnasium.

The Jaysee basketball team will open its conference season this Friday and Saturday evenings by facing the strong Sacramento five on the home court. Small in size, the Matrons are given little hope for a win over the visiting Jaysees.

Three hundred Matrons enjoyed the soph formal at the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco in the final event of the fall semester.

While spring registering was practically completed this week, some additional new students will probably enroll next week, and nearly all classes will be kept open for several days.

Meanwhile the college evening school is getting its winter quarter well started with 62 courses open to the adult public. Fully 1200 people have already taken part in the evening school work since last September.

W. P. A. 34-piece orchestra, composed of residents of San Mateo and Santa Clara counties, will give a concert for the school children on Tuesday, February 11, at 10 o'clock, at the school auditorium. Public is invited to attend.

Program will consist of marches, Strauss waltz, and one number played by a string quartet. Community singing, led by Miss Lottie Works, supervisor of music for San Mateo County Schools.

The others lost were Ruth Pease, Stanford sophomore, and Arthur Waterman and Bob Peyson, both Stanford seniors.

WILL CONVELE LEGISLATURE IN SPECIAL MEET

Amendments To County Charter May Be Ratified Making Six More Offices Elective Here

In an interview at Los Angeles, early this week, Governor Merriam indicated he expected to convene the Legislature in special session about March 1.

The body will be asked to act on the following measures:

Leasing of state-owned oil pools under state-owned lands.

Appropriation of $100,000 for the industrial accident commission.

Housing legislation to enable the state and municipal corporations to take advantage of provisions of the federal housing act.

Revision of the agricultural prorate act as it affects prunes.

Governor Merriam said bills affecting these subjects are being prepared and will be ready when the Legislature meets at Sacramento.

He indicated relief and taxation would not be subjects included in the special session's agenda.

The special session is of particular interest to San Mateo County, because it will enable ratification of the charter amendments adopted by a large majority last year, making the offices of county executive, coroner, engineer, tax collector, recorder, and treasurer elective. Once these amendments are ratified, these offices will be filled by county-wide vote at this year's regular elections.

DISTRICT MEET OF AUXILIARY IS CONVENED HERE

The Twenty-sixth District of the American Legion Auxiliary held their meeting, Friday evening of last week, in Veterans Hall, Daly City. Mrs. L. N. Zant was in the chair.

T. Louis Chess and C. H. Whitney of the American Legion were introduced. They spoke on the coming Jubilesta which the Legion and Auxiliary are sponsoring at ehhthe Belle Monte Country Club on the night of February 12. There will be dancing, games and cards for those who attend, also refreshments. The money from this affair will be used to defray expenses of the Legion and Auxiliary at the national convention, which will be held in Los Angeles this year.

Fine reports were rendered by the various chairmen.

Mrs. Dora Spencer of San Mateo was introduced to the group. Mrs. Spencer is a candidate for Martha Washington in a contest being conducted by a San Francisco paper. Mrs. Mary Winters of Redwood City, who won the Community Service award in that city, was present and received congratulations from the members. This is the first time a member of the Auxiliary has been so honored.

Refreshments were served by the hostess unit. The next meeting will be held in Millbrae on February 21, when department officers will be guests.

BRISBANE NOW HAS EXCELLENT PLAYGROUND

The Mothers' Club of Brisbane is to be congratulated on the work it has accomplished in establishing a playground for the children. Brisbane needs such a place in order to protect her children from the dangers of playing on the streets. The club has acquired the lots for this project on San Bruno avenue and Monterey street. It is now turning its attention to the furnishing of the playground with a fence and equipment. This will be for children up to 12 years of age.

We think it is a fine thing and second the mothers in asking the people of Brisbane to help them help the children.

ROCKAWAY BEACH PEDRO VALLEY

By C. H. T.

A continuance of the radiant weather of the past two weeks seemed to inspire and awaken thoughts of gardens, building, and plans for the summer in the local residents and visitors. Last Sunday was a busy day in many of the Rockaway and Pedro homes. The Johnsens put a few finishing touches to their house with the grass roof, and probably planned a number of others although, for the present they appear to be more directly interested in their new gold mining project near Angel's Camp, and a weekend cabin they may build there.

The Carl Runnings were up and at it on the far Pedro Terrace, where excavations were made early last spring. One might only guess, but it certainly looked as if Mr. and Mrs. Runnings were definitely getting ready to begin preparing their high-flung property lots for building later on in the year. We hope so, at any rate, and wish them the best of good fortune in their plans.

The Hector Martins are coming along with improvements. Ten days ago Hector felled a huge eucalyptus tree on one of his new lots, and he says that now he has wood enough to last six months and more.

Those bright colored lights strung among the trees in front of the Harry Rees place enliven the local scenery at night and make the road leading from the highway bus stop much more cheerful. Report whispers that Harry and Mr. Al Goetschen are conferring on the big subject of horses these days. But why this is, and to what purpose, nobody seems to know, and rumor has such a tantalizing way of stopping at the most interesting "whisper" and calling it a day, that we're just going to see if we can find out something more to tell. Harry's splendid racehorse, Johnny Hills, with the black velvet nose and keenly intelligent eyes, might have something to do with the whispers. Who knows? Johnny is surely "finding places" some day, when Johnny finds the turf under him.

Elinor Stewart and her pretty baby girl are visiting at her mother's home at Pedro, much to Gladys' satisfaction.

Mrs. Grace Danmann plans to go to the hospital the coming week for an operation to remove the hard swelling from her arm, which resulted from the serious automobile accident that overtook her last July. Her many friends unite in hoping that the operation will be entirely successful, and that Grace will soon be well again.

Shelter Cove had a big day last Sunday, with visitors from many places. San Franciscans are visiting the coast resorts more and more, as they begin to learn what a treasure house of beauty lies almost at their very doors, all the way down the new coast highway.

We understand that the new Maracci beach house has set the date for an official opening.

Use of a rich fuel mixture as a remedy for engine knocks due to poor compression is inadvisable because a usual result is rapid dilution of oil in the crankcase. This is because of the excessive amount of raw gasoline forced past the piston rings.

OUT OF PAST IN DRAMA POPS SAME OLD STORY

A spectacular dream of pageant proportions with special music and dances, mammoth in settings and cast, will be the next attraction at the Alcazar Theater. It starts Wednesday night, February 2, and is presented by the Federal Theater Project. It bears the title "The Sun And I."

"The Sun And I" was written by Barrie and Leona Stavis and is based on the story of Joseph, the biblical character who, sold into slavery, won his way to the governorship of Egypt, became a dictator over the land of the pyramids and started the ancient country on 500 years of its most prosperous existence, even though he came a cropper himself and was the victim of an uprising.

"The Sun And I" is intensely interesting apart from its entertainment. It has great intellectual appeal. It draws an understandable parallel between the times of Joseph and those of today. Times then were not so different from those of today. Questions of government, earning an honest dollar and eating regularly without having to make goulash out of the wolf at the door were as paramount as they are today.

Stage settings of "The Sun And I" by Scott McLean have been beautifully executed, carrying out the idea of the ponderous massiveness of Egyptian architecture. The costumes are authentically done in all of the flashing color and simplicity of line that marked the originals.

Sidney-McCrae Star In Goldwyn Picture Based On Stage Hit

"Dead End," Samuel Goldwyn's film production based on the Broadway stage hit by Sidney Kingsley, comes to the Avenue Theater on Sunday, with Sylvia Sidney and Joel McCrea in the starring roles.

This powerful drama of a day in the lives of a handful of humans who inhabit a "dead end" city street, where fashionable apartment rub elbows with the squalid tenements of the waterfront, which set records in its Broadway run and was cheered from Coast to Coast, reaches even greater heights in the film version.

Sylvia is seen as Drina, the slum girl who is battling desperately to raise herself and her small brother Tommy to a better life; McCrea plays Dave, the poor architect she loves, who, in turn, loves Kay (Wendy Barrie), who has found a way out of the slums into luxury and won't return even for love; Humphrey Bogart is seen as Baby Face Martin, the

DALY CITY CLUB IN PLAYOFF FOR LEAGUE HONORS

Home Team Now Tied For First Place In National Division With 7 Wins And 2 Lost

The Daly City baseball team will clash in an important contest, the coming Sunday, at the Seventeenth and Harrison street grounds, with the Municipal Railway club of San Francisco.

The result will decide the winner of top honors in the American Division of the Recreation Class A League. Each team, to date, has won seven games in the second half of the schedule as against two defeats. This will no doubt prove an interesting contest, as each team will be fighting hard to be declared winner of the pennant.

Every effort was made by the home management to have this game staged at the Jefferson High School diamond, but the San Francisco team refused to come here for so important a game which would decide the championship of their division in the league.

Many local fans are expected to attend and lend encouragement to our boys in their laudable effort "to bring home the bacon."

gangster with a price on his head, who braves death in the slum where he was spawned only to find that his own mother hates him and that Frances (Claire Trevor), his boyhood sweetheart, has taken life the easiest way. Allen Jenkins is seen as Hunk, "Baby Face's" henchman, and the Dead End kids from the original New York stage cast, Billy Halop, Gabriel Dell, Bobby Jordan, Huntz Hall, Leo Gorcey and Bernard Punsley, relive their famous characterizations of Tommy, "T.B.," "Angel," "Dippy," "Spit" and Milt.

Noted Musician Is Called To Beyond

Professor Eugene Goudy, a talented musician, who formerly resided on Hillcrest drive, Daly City, for about 16 years, passed away, Thursday of last week, in San Francisco, after an illness of several weeks.

On Saturday a half hour of music preceded the services at an Oakland mortuary.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Raitt of Back Bay, Boston, brother-in-law and sister of Mr. Goudy, have been here several weeks and were with him when he passed away.

Struck By Auto— Cut And Bruised

At the intersection of School and Mission streets, Miss Agnes Mary Gionie of 162 Park avenue, while driving out Mission street in her car, felled to the pavement Louis E. Smith of 1941 Mission street.

The injured man was taken to Junipero Serra Hospital, where he was treated for cuts and bruises. The accident occurred at about 11:55 p. m., Sunday of this week.

OBSERVATION OF VARIOUS THINGS IN OUR CAPITAL

We're All Invited To The President's Fifty-Fifth Birthday Party—And We Should All Attend

(By Hart Goodrich)

One of the great heroes in the fight against infantile paralysis is Franklin Delano Roosevelt, President of the United States. All the afflicted look to him for inspiration, since he experienced and overcame all the handicaps. It was at his recommendation that the Georgia Warm Springs Foundation got under way and that the great birthday ball celebration for the President began in 1934.

This novel way to combat disease was conceived by Colonel Henry L. Doherty, who has served as national chairman of the movement since its inception.

Doherty first became interested in the work after he had visited Warm Springs and had seen at first hand what the terrible disease can do to poor, helpless humanity. He realized the need of a concentration of forces to fight the plague, so he visited President Roosevelt, laid the plan before him and received enthusiastic endorsement. The result was, under Colonel Doherty's direction, that another colonel—Carl Byoirs—set up national headquarters in New York, launching a series of some 5000 parties to enable millions of Americans to join with scientists in the fight against a common enemy.

To date more than $4,000,000 have been raised in the four series of parties. Funds are divided so that 70 per cent remains in the community where the money is raised, with 30 per cent given the President to be turned over by him to the trustees of the Georgia Warm Springs Foundation and the Research Commission. Last year fourteen groups of research workers received grants from the commission. These funds were used in development of the epochal nose sprays using picric acid —the only effective preventative known to ward off attack of this disease.

Under present rules the birthday ball funds may be used either for infantile paralysis research or rehabilitation work. One aims at discovery of ways and means to wipe out the disease; the other has to do with the after treatment of victims.

The Birthday Ball held here in Washington is especially significant, since the President will be there in person. However, he sends a message by radio to those attending birthday celebrations throughout the country. This is one night of the year we should celebrate—not only those 55 worthwhile years of the President's life, but the advance science has made in the struggle with infantile paralysis. Remember that, at the same time we're celebrating, we're putting our shoulders to the wheel of scientific research that undoubtedly will find better ways in the future to prevent and cure a national scourge.

Let's fill the Tanforan club house to overflowing tonight, Saturday, January 29.

First Lady Speaks In San Francisco

It has been announced that Mrs. Franklin Delano Roosevelt, wife of the President, will speak in the Civic Auditorium in San Francisco, March 14. The program is to be nonpolitical, on the subject of "Peace." Mrs. Roosevelt has just published a book entitled "This Troubled World."

A citizens' committee is being formed to sponsor Mrs. Roosevelt's visit.

Attend District Press Luncheon

Among those who attended the annual Seventeenth District Press luncheon, representing units and newspapers in the northern section of this district, were the following: Mesdames Marjorie Woodside, Stella Jensen, Otha Kinsey and Julia Jordan. BRISBANE GENERALITIES

Mrs. Jonas entertained at dinner last week, Mr. and Mrs. Bragg and Mr. and Mrs. McWilliam being her guests. It was a very fine dinner we hear, beautifully cooked and served. And it was southern baked ham.

February 11 the bids for the auditorium will be opened.

Does everyone in Brisbane know of the really fine public library. It is located in the Jonas Drug Store and at your service at all times. Come in and let us help you.

The Bridge Club met in Mill Valley this week. Last month Mrs. Morley was the hostess.

Ed Brenzel (brother of Bill Brenzel, the baseball player) and Mr. Kale went to Sonora over the week end on a business trip for Mr. Kale.

We are all sorry to hear of the illness of Mrs. Ramsay's little one, and hope it will not be long.

Earl W. Wertz and wife, with their lovely little daughter of six years, have moved into the Gagner's place. They formerly resided in San Francisco on California street.

Harold Annis is figuring on a trip to Yosemite over the 22nd of February.

We hope little Joy Annis will soon be without an ulcerated tooth.

Mrs. Annis will entertain a party of guests at a dinner-dance in the Lake Merritt Hotel tonight. Mrs. Jacobs will be one of her guests.

The Firemen's Dance was a great success Saturday night. The attendance was the best yet, and the refreshments were great.

Mrs. Weller gave a very entertaining and instructive talk this week. She expressed the thought of how worth while to our children's future, the creation of desirable habits is. For instance, the habit of courtesy, table manner, speech, health, orderliness, play, etc. This talk was brought out in a most interesting manner in the California P.T.A. magazine for November.

Mrs. Barbara Darling has been ill. We hope she will be well soon. We expect to have her with us at our next meeting.

The Study Group met yesterday. Everyone agreed that we had a lovely time.

Miss Lipman, principal of the school, will instruct a class in letter tooling at 2 o'clock. Also a class in knitting will be held. Come and enjoy yourselves, keeping busy and learning.

NEXT DOOR

The luckless book peddler knocked and the door was opened by a grumpy-looking woman. "Have you Charles Dickens in your house?" he asked.

"No," snapped the woman. "Or Robert Louis Stevenson? Or Walter Scott?" he continued, hope dawning in his eyes.

"No we ain't," said the woman. "And what's more, I don't take in lodgers. Try next door; they do."—Ashington-Collieries Magazine.

APPLICATIONS FOR ELECTION OFFICERS NOW BEING SOUGHT

tion officer a person must be duly registered. Any electors who have changed their residence address, or their name by marriage or court order, since they were last registered in this county, should go promptly to the nearest city clerk, county clerk's field deputy or county clerk's office and re-register.

On account of the present business recession and economic stress prevailing, Augustus desires, so far as he is able to determine, to show a preference to those who are unemployed, if qualified, and need the little financial help the county can extend in this manner.

No preference will be shown for political prestige or influence, nor will it be denied on account of party affiliation.

Applicants to receive consideration must write plainly, giving the following information:

(1) Full name (if a woman, write own given name).

(2) Residence address (showing street and number and name of street if any).

(3) State whether or not experienced as an election officer. If experienced, state whether served as inspector, judge or clerk.

Applications will be considered in the order received and lists compiled promptly, so do not delay sending in your name if you wish to serve. As there can be only six officers named in a precinct, obviously no guarantees can be made at this time and no appointments will be sent out until about August 10.

It was further stated by Augustus that any one wishing to furnish premises for a polling place should promptly write to him, giving full name, mailing address, address of premises, size of room, whether or not they can furnish one large table, six chairs, lights and heat if needed, also comfort station facilities.

Persons furnishing polling places will not be appointed to serve as election officers, except in an emergency.

Since there are now 240 precincts in the county to be supervised and handled by the clerk, instead of 207, as formerly under the control of the five supervisors, Augustus says he can readily see the need of early planning and preparation and urges the co-operation of all interested.

Gently I took that which ungently came,
And without scorn forgave;
Do thou the same.—Coleridge.

POPULAR COLMA COUPLE MARRIED

At a colorful ceremony held, Saturday evening of last week, at St. John's Church in San Francisco, Miss Hermena Siemund became the bride of Robert M. Dennis. Both the bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Siemund, and the groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dennis of Railroad avenue, are well known in Colma and have a large circle of friends here.

Miss Siemund, who was given away by her father, wore a beautiful gown of egg shell satin with a long train. A long tulle veil was held in place by a bride's cap. She carried a large bouquet of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

Miss Louise Siemund, the bride's sister, was her maid of honor; bridesmaids were Dorothea Peterson and Eleanor Hienzie; flower girls were Eleanor Benedetti and Joan Garibaldi.

The groom was attended by his best man Leo Kushber, with Edward Dennis and Paul Giusti acting as ushers.

Following the ceremony, a reception and buffet supper were held at the Siemund residence with one hundred and fifty guests attending. On their return from a short honeymoon trip, the young couple will make their home in Colma.

All Citizens Should Bend Every Effort To Journey To Tanforan Club House Tomorrow Night For The County Wide Celebration

ish Nightingale," from the Club Moderne, and Birdie June Preston, formerly of the Folies Bergere, from Uncle Tom's Cabin.

From Stanford University will come stars of the 1937 Gayeties, among them Robert Forbes, pianist and composer, whose music has been featured over the radio by leading San Francisco hotel orchestras; Ardis Davis, attractive brunette soloist, and Wayne and Dwight Zook, comedy acrobats.

The Tanforan club house has been elaborately decorated by the American Legion post of San Bruno; there will be adequate parking space, and supervised cloak room facilities for 4000 persons will be available.

Sponsors of the celebration include the Board of Supervisors, mayors of each city in the county, Superior Judges Maxwell McNutt and Aylett Cotton, School Superintendent Pansy Jewett Abbott and other prominent citizens, including Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Garibaldi and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Garibaldi and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Alteri of Colma.

Tickets, popularly priced at 75 cents each, may be secured from committee members or at the club house the night of the ball.

COMMUNITY CHURCH NOTES

How many of you have noticed that work has been started on the lot leveling preparatory to the building of the first unit of the church? Judging from the work accomplished on the first day it will probably take another two weeks for this to be completed. Any men with a few free hours, who would like to lend a hand on the project will be welcome.

Services are still held at the Fire House; with Church School at 10:00 a.m. and Morning Worship at 11:00 a.m. A Fireside Fellowship Hour, held at 300 Klamath street at 7:00 p.m. All are cordially invited to attend these services. Rev. M. C. Donaldson's subject for Sunday is "The Light of A Life." The Junior Choir will furnish the special music.

February 5, the women of the church are having a Bake Sale to be held at Phil's Grocery in Brisbane. Proceeds of the sale to go toward the purchase of equipment of departments in the Church School. Next meeting February 8 at the home of Mrs. Ferguson, 304 Klamath street.

At an early date we are starting our Evangelistic and Advance program to carry over the period of February 13 to April 3. Our goal for attendance in Morning Service is 103. Will you be one of them?
